

Recognize, Value, & Nurture Giftedness

Empowering teachers, parents, and advocates to implement effective practices in schools, at homes, and in communities

#NAGC18

The NAGC 65th Annual Convention (NAGC18) in Minneapolis, November 15-18, brings together nearly 3,000 individuals from around the world. More than 250 content-rich sessions with leading experts and researchers in the field of gifted education provide a unique learning opportunity for teachers, parents, and advocates. NAGC18 will address key issues, facilitate discussions, offer solutions, and empower attendees to implement effective practices in schools, at homes, and in communities.
