

Sandra Johnson

103 Ruble Road, Harrison, AR 72601
sandraharoldjohnson@gmail.com, 870-365-9227

Seeking position of State Representative on the NAGC Board

Education

1981-1985 Harding University Searcy, AR
Undergraduate degree in Special Education/Elementary Education
1986-1988 University of Arkansas Little Rock, AR
Masters Degree in Gifted Education
2003– 2005 Arkansas State University Jonesboro, AR
Specialists Degree Hours (15) in Curriculum and Program Administration

Professional Experience

2014– Present, Adjunct Gifted Education Teacher
Harding University
Consultant, OUR Cooperative, Harrison, AR
2006-2017, Gifted Specialist
OUR Cooperative, Harrison, AR (Retired 2017)
Coordinate Gifted and Talented resources and activities for 16 school districts
1990-2006, Gifted Coordinator
Bergman School District
Coordinate the Gifted and Talented Program for Bergman School K-12
1989-1991, Gifted Coordinator
Omaha School District
Coordinate the Gifted and Talented Program for Omaha School District K-12
1986-1989, Gifted and Special Education Teacher 7-12
Bruno-Pyatt School District
1986, Special Education Teacher 7-12
Jasper School District

Professional Memberships in Gifted Organizations

AGATE - Arkansans for Gifted and Talented Education, 30 years of active membership with various board positions, currently the Legislative Chair, presented multiple times at the annual conference, served as Conference Chair 2011, Martha Ann Jones Service Award

AAGEA– Arkansas Association of Gifted Education Administrators, 15 years of active membership with various board positions including President, currently the Legislative Chair , presented often at the annual conference, State AAEA conference and will keynote AAGEA Fall Conference 2018, 2011 AAGEA State Gifted Administrator of the Year Award

NAGC—National Association for Gifted Children, 18 years of membership
Current chair of the Advocacy and Legislative Committee
Presented at NAGC Convention 2017
Attended Affiliate Conference/Leadership Conference 2018, 2016, 2015, 2014, 2013