Please click here to let us know how you would like NAGC to handle your registration by September 30, 2020. All requests must be submitted online for processing.

If I joined NAGC to get the in-person 67th Annual Convention at the Disney’s Coronado Springs® Resort rate, will I receive a refund for paid membership?

No. Membership in NAGC is more than just a Convention; we encourage registrants to experience all the benefits that NAGC has to offer. You are free, of course, to cancel your membership and you will receive a pro-rated refund.

What should I do about my airfare and lodging?

All attendees and exhibitors that reserved their hotel room at Disney’s Coronado Springs® Resort through the NAGC room block have already received a refund for the deposit of one night’s fee that you provided when you made your November reservation. A cancellation confirmation was sent to the email address you provided during your reservation. If you still plan to go to Disney and would like to reinstate your reservation, call the Group Reservations Office at (407) 939-4686.

Individuals that booked through a third-party provider, such as Expedia, Travelocity or other such providers, will need to cancel their own reservations, as the resort does not have a method to identify them as part of the group.

For air travel, contact your airline directly regarding ticket cancellations. If you purchased travel insurance, please contact your provider for information and next steps. While NAGC cannot reimburse cancellation fees, many airlines are waiving them during this time.

Where can I find the programming and schedule for the virtual NAGC 67th Annual Convention Reimagined!?
